Global Theological Ethics—Book Series

Series Editors

Jason King, St. Mary's—San Antonio, TX

M. Therese Lysaught, Loyola University Chicago

The Global Theological Ethics book series focuses on works that feature authors from around the world, draw on resources from the traditions of Catholic theological ethics, and attend to concrete issues facing the world today. It advances the Journal of Moral Theology's mission of fostering scholarship deeply rooted in traditions of inquiry about the moral life, engaged with contemporary issues, and exploring the interface of Catholic moral theology philosophy, economics, political philosophy, psychology, and more.

This series is sponsored in conjunction with the Catholic Theological Ethics in the World Church. CTEWC recognizes the need to dialogue from and beyond local cultures and to interconnect within a world church. Its global network of scholars, practitioners, and activists fosters cross-cultural, interdisciplinary conversations—via conferences, symposia, and colloquia, both in-person and virtually—about critical issues in theological ethics, shaped by shared visions of hope.

Online versions of the volumes in the Global Theological Ethics series are available for free download as chapters at jmt.scholasticahq.com. Paper copies may be purchased from Wipf & Stock. This dual approach reflects the Journal of Moral Theology's commitment to the common good as it seeks to make the scholarship of Catholic theological ethicists broadly available, especially across borders. Additionally, you can find the series listed on the CTEWC website at catholicethics.com/book-series/catholic-theological-ethics-series/.

Acknowledgments

A book comes into being through the synergy of many minds and hands, and so we wish to express our deep gratitude to all who have contributed to this work.

First and foremost, we are grateful to each of the authors who have shared their wisdom with sharpness and clarity. Their contributions are significant because these voices of women from the Asian context have something significant to offer to the Church on the path of realizing the vision of synodality.

Since this book is the outcome of the presentations made at the eleventh biennial conference of Ecclesia of Women in Asia (EWA), we want to place on record the efforts put in by the coordinating team of EWA XI under the leadership of Dr Rachel Sanchez, for all the meticulous planning and steps initiated in view of the meaningful execution of this event. A special word of thanks to Dr Marinda Keng-Fan Chan, the secretary of EWA XI for painstakingly organizing this event at Macao from June 26–30, 2024, paying keen attention to every detail for its successful accomplishment.

Getting this work published as a volume in the Catholic Theological Ethics in the World Church book series was made possible through the initiative of Dr Stephanie Ann Y. Puen, the coordinator of EWA XI. We are deeply grateful to Stephanie for making the necessary contacts that facilitated taking the voices of Asian feminist theologians to an international setting, through this publishing.

A word of special thanks to M. Therese Lysaught, Aaron James Weisel, and William Collinge of the Journal of Moral Theology for their assistance in getting the manuscript ready for publication and to Wipf and Stock publishing company for bringing out this work in a book form.

Finally, our hearts sing in gratitude for the constant accompaniment of Spirit Sophia, whose wisdom has guided us at every step for bringing this work to completion.
